HIS EARTHLY REIGN

John Walker was born on October 20, 1944 to the late James Walker and Maggie Robinson Pipes in Chicago, Illinois. He attended and graduated from West Livingston High school. He attended and graduated from Southern University and A&M College where he obtained his Bachelors and Masters degree in mathematics. In 1967, John was drafted by the Army to serve in the Vietnam War. John married Alice Armstead in 1968. To this union, two sons were born, Marlon Terrell Walker and Randall Deondre Walker. John married Carrie Shorter in 1996, where he gained a stepdaughter, Chasidy Hausey. John had a love that was contagious, and everyone that came in contact with him was touched by that love. John meant a lot to a lot of people, and had a hard time saying no when someone needed him for something. He was a very selfless man.

To Our Brother John Henry Walker
In memory of a special Brother so full of loving deeds, who always thought of others first and helped fulfil their needs.
Someone who loved to bring a smile as he went on his way and never failed to brighten up a dark and gloomy day.
Someone who'll never know how much he's missed and thought about for when he left, it seemed as if the stars had all gone out.
Brother, you mean so very much in every single way and you're remembered with much Love today and every day.

Your Brothers and Sisters,
Lawrence, Luther, Floyd, Margie, Gladys, Caroline, Verneta, and Martina

So heaven has received another angel
The night sky another star
Your life has become a loving memory
I know you will never be far.
I know you are watching over me
As my life goes on
I will treasure the memories I have of you
I can't believe you're gone.
You were a loving, caring grandad
You were there for me a lot
You will always hold a place in my heart
A loving treasured spot
You were really one in a million
A cut above the rest
All that knew you would agree
You simply were the best.
So grandad I will say goodbye
I love and miss you with all my heart
But as long as I have my loving memories
We will never be too far apart.

Your grandkids,
Rani'ee, Ra'laina, Chason, and Landon
